

Behind the GIFs

with Kat Swenski

So tell me, fish... are you in alliance with the cats?

What? Of course not!

We fish hate cats even more than we hate dogs!

A cartoon illustration featuring three anthropomorphic dogs in green uniforms. On the left, a brown dog points towards a fish tank. In the center, a blue dog looks on with a concerned expression. On the right, a yellow dog stands next to the tank, looking at a yellow fish that is speaking. The tank also contains an orange fish. The background is a simple indoor setting with a light-colored wall.

Although both of you are pretty insufferable if you ask me.
Getting cuddly with humans all the time... It's sickening!

Well, actually... if we're being honest, we're kind of envious of you guys. Fish don't get as much attention as you dogs do.

Humans never take us
for walks or call us
"good boy"...

...And
it would be nice to get petted
every once
in a while,
you know?

Hm. Well we do have a dedicated human onsite for petting purposes.

If you fish agree to be our allies, I could probably hook you up.

It's a deal!
